Dear Supporter,

Audubon’s Fourth of July parade is a proud tradition where thousands of local residents gather with neighbors, friends, and family to honor past and present servicemen, celebrate our freedoms, and cultivate community spirit. Events such as these are especially important after such a trying year! You have an opportunity to be involved as a part of this tradition by advertising in the official Parade Program which is hand delivered to more than 3,950 homes and is read by over 8,000 people from your target market.
